Course Information Sheet

- NVQ Early Years Care & Education Level 2

All about this training

This Certificate will offer you the opportunity to develop in confidence and competence in the World of Early Years. You will have an opportunity to understand the principles of good practice and current legislation as an assistant.

The Certificate is specific to work with children aged 0 – 8 years.

Settings appropriate for this Certificate may for example be:

- Day Nurseries
- Pre-schools
- Creches

Criteria for Entry:

- Be able to be assessed in practical placement either paid or voluntary
- Be able to produce a portfolio of written evidence
- Be able to provide a CRB check

You will cover 10 units for this certificate:

- These consist of 8 mandatory units and two optional units
- All units have a large element of direct assessment in the work place, therefore permission is required from the setting to allow childcarestudy assessors to observe you at work.

Criteria for entry - is this you?

Our aim is to try and accommodate your preferred style of learning. Whilst you will need to be self motivated, we pride ourselves on offering individual support throughout the course.

We are able to offer this Certificate through the following methods:

- Web site course support materials
- Paper based course support materials
- Seminars and tutor delivered sessions (This is dependent on student numbers and location)
